

10 Hits for Bringing Your Group to The Fall Retreat

1. Start talking about it at your first teen gathering of the year. And every gathering after that.
2. Hand out the flyer with the permission form at your first teen gathering of the year.
3. Require permission slip and payment from teens as the only way to officially sign up.
4. If you've gone before, show pictures.
5. Ask a teen who has attended to give a 3 minute witness about their experience.
6. You'll need 1 adult for every 7 teens you bring. If you have both male and female teens you will need male and female adult leaders. Line up your adult leaders early.
7. Check out the playlist on thefallretreat.org and start playing those songs at your teen gatherings.
8. Talk to your pastor. Let him know the date, the theme, who you hope will attend, how much it will cost, invite him to come for dinner and confessions, etc.
9. Pray
